

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Alhamdulillahirabbil 'alamin, in this opportunity I would like to express my highest gratitude to Allah SWT for blessing, love, opportunity, health, and mercy to finally accomplish this thesis. The thesis entitled The Blended Learning Implementation during the Covid-19 Pandemic for English Learning in SMKN 1 Pontianak is one of the requirements to fulfill one of the requirements for Undergraduated Degree Examination at English Language Education Study Program of Language and Art Education Department of Teacher Training and Education Faculty of Tanjungpura University

In arranging this thesis, a lot of people have provided motivation, advice, and support me. In this valuable chance, I intended to express my gratitude and appreciation to all of them. First, I deepest appreciation to my beloved father and mother, Mulyadi and Rusmiati for the endless love, pray, and support to complete this thesis, and to my sister and brother Rossy Meiliani, Oni Astri Herdani, and M. Iqbal Khadafi who has also supported me to keep going and never giving up.

I would like to regards the deepest gratitude to Urai Salam, M. CALL, Ph.D., as my first supervisor and Sumarni S.Pd, M. TESOL, as second supervisor for the time, guidance, and motivation in conducting this thesis. I also would like to regards the thanks and appreciations to Dr. Regina M.Pd., as the first examiner and Eusabinus Bunau, S.Pd., M.Si., Ph.D., as second examiner for their advice and idea which also hold an important role for development and improvement of this thesis.

I express my gratitude also to all my friends in the English department especially Riski Firmansyah, Maizari, Rahma Regita, Amirullah, and others who cannot be mentioned one by one. Those people have always been giving their all best supports, encouragements, cares, and advise.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of this undergraduate thesis. This undergraduate thesis is far from perfect, but it is expected that it will be useful not only for me but also for readers. For this reason, constructive thoughtfull suggestion and critics are welcomed.
